

Share Jesus without fear

Know the gospel. Begin a conversation.
Help someone take the next step.

Adapted from Share Jesus Without Fear by William Fay.

Know the gospel

01 Jesus Christ is the eternal God who took on human flesh

The Word was with God and was God; the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. Jesus is God in the flesh. John 1:1, 14

02 Jesus lived a sinless and perfect life

Jesus knew no sin. The spotless Lamb of God could offer Himself for sinners so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God. 2 Corinthians 5:21

03 Jesus died on the cross as our substitute

He was pierced for our transgressions and bore our iniquity. Our forgiveness rests on the once-for-all payment Jesus made on the cross. Isaiah 53:5–6

04 Jesus rose from the dead conquering sin and death

The resurrection declares Jesus to be the Son of God in power. Those who trust in Him share the hope of eternal life. Romans 1:4

05 Jesus is coming back to judge the living and the dead

God has appointed Jesus as Judge. Every thought, word, and deed matters, and the gospel calls for a response. Acts 10:42

06 The gospel calls every person to repentance

Repentance means turning from sin to God. It involves recognizing personal sin, seeking forgiveness in faith, and beginning a life of obedience. Mark 1:15

07 Salvation is by faith in Christ alone

We are saved by grace through faith, not by works. Good works cannot save us; our trust belongs in Christ alone. Ephesians 2:8–9

Scripture summaries above are reading aids. Read the passages in your Bible.

Begin a conversation

You don't need a seminary degree to share Jesus. You need faith, a Bible, and a willingness to listen. Remember the rhythm: open the conversation, ask, listen, open the Word, invite a response, and follow up.

Step 1 Start the conversation

Choose an opener that fits the person and the setting. A natural conversation can begin with sports, classes, work, family, or a holiday.

A direct approach

"Where do you think people go when they die?"

"If you died right now, where would you go?"

An indirect approach

"Where are you from?"

"Do you have any Easter traditions?"

Then transition: "Do you have any spiritual beliefs?"

Other openers

"Do you go to church anywhere?"

"Has anyone ever told you the difference between religion and a relationship with Jesus Christ?"

Step 2 Ask and listen

Choose one of questions 1–4, then ask question 5. Listen carefully without turning the conversation into a debate. Seek to understand what the person believes.

1. Do you have any kind of spiritual belief?
2. To you, who is Jesus Christ?
3. Do you think there is a heaven or a hell?
4. If you died, where would you go? If heaven, why?
5. If what you're believing is not true, would you want to know?

Ask permission to open the Bible

If they say yes to question 5, ask: "May I show you some Scriptures that changed my life?" If they say no, thank them for talking with you.

Conversation framework adapted from Share Jesus Without Fear by William Fay.

Let the Bible speak

Hand them your Bible and invite them to read each passage aloud. Ask, “What does this say to you?” If the meaning is unclear, invite them to read it again. Offer an explanation when needed.

01 Romans 3:23

“For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

Main truth: Everyone, including us, has sinned.

02 Romans 6:23

“For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Main truth: Sin leads to death, but God gives eternal life through His Son.

03 John 3:3

“I tell you the truth, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

Main truth: We must be born again to see the kingdom of God.

04 John 14:6

“I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Main truth: Jesus is the only way to the Father.

05 Romans 10:9–11

“If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.”

Main truth: Salvation involves confessing Jesus as Lord and believing that God raised Him from the dead.

06 2 Corinthians 5:15

“And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.”

Main truth: Those who belong to Christ live for Him rather than for themselves.

07 Romans 10:13

“Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Main truth: Everyone who calls on the Lord will be saved.

Read each full passage in your Bible. The Romans 10:9–11 excerpt above quotes verse 9. Scripture wording is retained from the supplied handout.

Invite a response

Step 4 Ask the five commitment questions

After Romans 10:13, ask these questions clearly and give the person time to respond.

1. Are you a sinner?
2. Do you want forgiveness of sins?
3. Do you believe Jesus died on the cross for you and rose again?
4. Are you willing to surrender your life to Jesus Christ?
5. Are you ready to invite Jesus into your life and into your heart?

After question 5, be silent. Wait for their answer and pray quietly for them. If they are ready, invite them to pray.

Step 5 Pray in repentance and faith

Lead them line by line, or invite them to pray in their own words.

“Heavenly Father, I have sinned against you. I want forgiveness for all my sins. I believe that Jesus died on the cross for me and rose again. Father, I give you my life to do with as you wish. I want to follow you with my life. This I ask in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

Salvation is by grace through faith in Christ. The prayer expresses that faith; the words themselves do not save.

Step 6 Anchor and follow up

Connect them with a local church and other believers. Offer a specific next step and arrange a time to meet again.

“May I take you to church with me?”

“I would love to have you join us for Bible study.”

“Can we exchange numbers and meet for coffee?”

Make a plan to reconnect

Name _____

Next step _____

Day and time _____

Reach the people around you

God reaches people through relationships. You can begin with the people already in your phone, your classes, your workplace, and your family. These relationships are your sphere of influence.

“If every believer reached his or her concentric circles, the whole world could be drawn to Christ.” — Claude King

Your circles of relationship

Begin with yourself, then consider your immediate family, relatives, friends, neighbors and associates, and acquaintances. Finally, identify “Person X”: one person you will intentionally pray for and seek to reach.

Seven stages of reaching your circles

01 Get right with God and others

Repent of sin, seek reconciliation, and attend to your own walk with Jesus.

02 Survey your relationships

Write down names. Notice the people God has already placed within your reach.

03 Work with God through prayer

Pray for the people on your list. Watch where God is working and look for opportunities to join Him.

04 Build relationships

Share interests, walk through hard moments, and celebrate together. Let trust grow through genuine friendship.

05 Show God’s love by meeting needs

Look for practical ways to serve. Let Christian love shape both your words and your actions.

06 Make disciples and help them grow

Share the gospel directly. Your responsibility is to witness; the Holy Spirit brings conviction. Help new believers follow Jesus.

07 Help new Christians make disciples

Share this guide and encourage them to reach the people around them. Teach them to help others follow Christ.

Use the next page to turn these relationships into a prayer list.

Map your sphere

Circle 1 is you. Begin by asking God to prepare your heart. Then write names in the relationship groups below. Choose one person to pray for every day this week.

RELATIONSHIP	NAMES TO PRAY FOR
2 Immediate family Parents, siblings, spouse	1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
3 Relatives Extended family, cousins, in-laws	1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
4 Friends Close friends, roommates, small group	1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
5 Neighbors and associates Neighbors, classmates, coworkers, teammates	1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
6 Acquaintances People you see in the course of daily life	1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
X Person X One person you will intentionally seek to reach	1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

Start this week

My one person _____

A practical way to serve or connect _____

When I will reach out _____

Pray daily. Build the relationship. Look for an opportunity to share Christ.